COURSE POLICY

Quiz and Exam Format

The quiz and exams will focus on problem solving skills acquired throughout the session from the class lecture and from exercises done by the students themselves from the relevant chapters of the textbook. The quiz and the examination format will feature multiple-choice questions and short “free –format” problems. Students are expected to constantly review all the course materials, as the quiz can be “pop up”. Students are not allowed to use any textbook or notes during the quiz. There will be NO makeup quizzes regardless of any reason.

Class Attendance/Participation

Attendance is mandatory. Attendance will be checked. Full class participation requires that you attend all classes on time and that you come well prepared to discuss assigned readings, engage thoughtfully with course content.

Lack of preparation, unprofessional conduct (e.g. non-participation, tardiness and distracting behavior, etc.) will lower your participation score. Please note that students arriving 10 minutes late to class will be marked as L –Late. Two L will be counted as one A -Absent.

According to MUIC's policy, students are expected to attend at least 80% of the class (Maximum 4As), if the student missed the class for more than 4 times, 1% will be taken off from your final grade for each additional absence.

Uniform Policy

A proper dress code is part of the written policy for student conduct, including exchange and visiting students. MUIC is a high profile institution and it is considered quite an honor to be wearing its uniform. Students are expected to strictly follow the university dress code norms. No cut-off jeans, shorts, mini or short skirts, tank tops or low cut blouses, flip-flops, rubber or plastic sandals, or house slippers are permitted. If the students neglected to wear the proper uniform, he/she will not be allowed to enter the classroom and will be marked as absent on that day.

Peer Evaluation

To ensure each team member is responsible and productive, a peer evaluation will be conducted at the end of the semester. Students should be honest, unbiased and constructive in their evaluations. Completing and submitting the self and peer evaluation is mandatory to receive a score for the group project. The instructor reserves the right to correct and/or discard evaluations if they appear to be ambiguous or debatable. The grades of students who are consistently rated as very poor performers are reduced.

Self and Peer Evaluation Score and Group Project Score

Average Peer Evaluation Score (1–7)	Individual Project Score Allocation
6.00 – 7.00	100%
5.00 – 5.99	90%
4.00 – 4.99	85%
3.00 – 3.99	80%
Less than 3.00	70%

Academic Integrity Policy

Students are expected to uphold academic integrity in all aspects of their conduct. Actions such as copying, colluding, or hiring others to complete assignments or work on their behalf are strictly prohibited and will result in charges of academic dishonesty.

If you have any uncertainties about course assessments or instructions, you are encouraged to consult your course lecturer to ensure the submission of original, high-quality work.

AI Assessment Scale (AIAS)
Level	Description
1	No AI: The assessment is completed entirely without AI assistance. Students rely solely on their existing knowledge, understanding, and skills.
2	AI Planning: AI is used for pre-task activities like brainstorming, outlining, and initial research. The focus is on using AI effectively for planning, synthesis, and ideation, while students independently refine and develop ideas.
3	AI Collaboration: AI is used to assist in completing tasks, including idea generation, drafting, feedback, and refinement. Students critically evaluate and modify AI outputs to demonstrate understanding.
4	Full AI: AI can be extensively used to complete tasks, with students directing AI to achieve assessment goals. Critical thinking and engagement with AI for problem-solving are essential.
5	AI Exploration: AI is employed creatively to solve tasks, generate novel insights, or explore innovative solutions.
Note: 1. Students should not upload their work to sites that do not have clear privacy policies . University and course materials (lecture slides, teaching content, etc.) must not be uploaded to AI sites without permission. 2. To ensure the privacy and security of all users' data, any AI system or tool used in teaching, learning, or university operations must have its learning capabilities disabled.

Course Learning Assessments Details

1. Marketing Plan Project Presentation 35%

The marketing plan project evaluates your practical understanding of marketing concepts and strategic planning. It requires synthesizing consumer insights from qualitative and/or quantitative data to guide strategic decisions, reflecting real-world marketing practices.

Due to its scope, this project will be completed in teams of 5–7 members, formed during the first class. Effective teamwork and time management are essential, ensuring all members contribute meaningfully. At the end of the term, each student must complete a self and peer evaluation, which will determine individual scores based on team contributions (see Self and Peer Evaluation section).

To ensure consistent progress and provide opportunities for feedback, teams will deliver two progress report presentations and a final presentation (refer to the Tentative Schedule for dates). These presentations will help improve both the project content and presentation skills.

Presentations will be evaluated using the rubric criteria (see Google Classroom for the rubrics). Attendance is mandatory for all students on presentation days. The general deliverables of each presentation are provided below, more specific details, if necessary, will be provided during the in-class workshops.

AI Use in Marketing Plan Project (Level 3 - AI Collaboration)

Students are encouraged to leverage Generative AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT, Gemini, Claude, Midjourney, Canva, etc.) to support the development of a comprehensive marketing plan and presentation. The use of AI-powered language editing tools (e.g., Grammarly, Quillbot) is also encouraged to enhance the clarity and professionalism of written communication.

AI may be used throughout the project process, including for idea generation, drafting, feedback, and content refinement. However, students must critically evaluate, edit, and appropriately integrate AI-generated content to demonstrate their own understanding and analytical thinking.

Important: Directly copying and pasting AI-generated content without meaningful modification, critical analysis, or proper fact-checking is strictly prohibited and will result in a deduction of marks.

2. Group Activities and Assignment 15%

Submission: At the end of the class

In-class activities are designed to help students understand and practice the class lecture. Some activities will be completed within the class period and require active participation, and others are designed to complete outside the class. Attendance on activity days is mandatory.

Please note that the schedule may change due to unforeseen circumstances. The lecturer will make every effort to inform students of any changes in a timely manner. Students who miss an activity day will not receive a score for that activity.

AI Use in Group In-Class Activity (Level 2 - Minimal AI)

Students are discouraged from using AI tools in these in-class exercises to maximize learning and skill development. AI use should be minimal (Level 1-2: No AI or Planning only). These activities focus on real-time problem-solving, critical thinking, and practical marketing skills that require hands-on engagement without AI assistance. If you have questions about AI use in specific activities, consult your instructor.

Important: Directly copying and pasting AI-generated content without meaningful modification, critical analysis, or proper fact-checking is strictly prohibited and will result in a deduction of marks.

3. Marketing Simulation 10%

Submission: On Google Classroom

The marketing simulation is an individual assignment. The student will play the role of a marketing in the simulation with a mission to achieve certain marketing objectives. Details of the marketing simulation is available on the Google Classroom along with its due date.

AI Use in Marketing Simulation (Level 1 - No AI)

The assessment is completed entirely without AI assistance.

4. Final Examination 40% (Level 1 - No AI)

Date & Room: Posted on SKY+

A two-sided cheat sheet (normal paper A4 size) is allowed into the classroom. Students must bring the student ID card and their own stationary. Mobile phones and other electronic devices are strictly prohibited in the examination room. Any violation of this policy may result in the examination being disqualified. Please ensure all devices are turned off and stored away before entering the exam room.

AI Use in Final Examination (Level 1 - No AI)

The assessment is completed entirely without AI assistance.

Late Submission Policy

Late submissions will incur the following penalties:

- Up to 24 hours late: 5% penalty
- More than 24 hours and up to 72 hours late: 15% penalty
- More than 72 hours late: The assignment will not be accepted, and a score of zero will be assigned.

Penalties will be applied automatically in all cases. Please plan your work accordingly to meet deadlines.
